- (1) The Bank shall be the regulatory authority for the purposes of giving effect to this Act.
- (2) The Bank may require any person resident or conducting business in South Sudan, whether or not that person is carrying on business licensed under this Act, to furnish details of any or all of such person’s foreign exchange transactions or provide returns in a format prescribed by the Bank, giving details of that person’s foreign exchange transactions.
- (3) The Bank may, to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may think proper, delegate to any person or class of persons the performance of any of the powers conferred upon the Bank under this Act, other than the powers set out in Section 12 of this Act.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Bank shall be responsible for the implementation of this Act and may do all such things as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the objectives of this Act.
- (5) In the exercise of the powers conferred on the Bank by subsection (3), the Bank may issue guidelines, manuals, and circulars and may request for an information for ensuring the execution of the provisions of this Act, and the regulations made hereunder this Act.

7. Licensing.

- (1) No person, other than a bank licensed under the Banking Act, 2012, or a legal person licensed as a foreign exchange bureau under this Act, shall engage in the foreign exchange business or in the business of international money transfers.
- (2) The Bank may issue, for a fee determined by the Bank, a licence under this Act to any legal person, provided that only an enterprise formed or incorporated under applicable legislation concerning companies shall qualify to be issued a licence as a foreign exchange bureau under this Act.
- (3) The Bank shall determine the minimum paid up share capital required to:
 - (a) carry out the business of foreign exchange bureau; and
 - (b) carry out the business of international money transfers.

- (5) In considering an application for the renewal of a licence, the Bank may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Bank considers appropriate, extend the validity of an existing licence for not more than three months so as to permit the licensee to take such action as the Bank considers necessary to enable the licensee to comply with this Act and the regulations, permissions, instructions and directions issued under this Act.
- (6) When issuing or renewing a licence under this section, the Bank may impose upon the licensee such conditions or restrictions as the Bank considers appropriate.

bureau licensed under this Act to carry out the business of international money transfers.

- (3) Where the Bank has reason to believe that an offence is about to be, or has been, committed, the Bank may require a bank or foreign exchange bureau to obtain the permission of the Bank before executing any payment referred to in subsection (1), and the permission shall be granted solely on the basis of a determination by the Bank that the payment is consistent with the laws of South Sudan.
- (4) The Bank may make regulations prescribing information to be provided to the Bank by a person licensed under this Act, residents and non-residents in connection with the conclusion of any transaction involving foreign currency, the maintenance of bank accounts in South Sudan or outside South Sudan, and the settling of any payment by a resident or non-resident.

- (2) A person required under subsection (1) to furnish information that is stored in a computer or any other electronic media shall also produce such books, accounts or other documents as may be required for that purpose by the Bank or its representative.
- (3) If a person is convicted for failing to give information or produce any document when required to do so under this section, the court may make an order requiring the offender, within such period as may be specified in the order, to comply with the requirement to provide the information or to produce the required documents.
- (4) Any information or document obtained under this section is admissible in evidence in a prosecution for an offence under this Act of any person from whom it was obtained or of any enterprise for which that person at the time of the commission of the offence was or was purporting to act as director, general manager, secretary or other similar officer of the enterprise.

14. Search and Seizure.

- (1) If the court is satisfied by information given under oath by a person authorised by the Bank to act for the purpose of this section, either:
 - (a) that an offence under this Act has been or is being committed and that evidence of the commission of the offence is to be found at any premises specified in the information, or in any vehicle, vessel, or aircraft so specified; or
 - (b) that any document which ought to have been produced under Section 13 of this Act and has not been produced is to be found at any premises or in any vehicle, vessel or aircraft referred to in paragraph (a); then the court may issue a search warrant authorising a police officer, together with any other person named in the warrant and any other police officers, to enter the premises specified in the information or any premises upon which the vehicle, vessel or aircraft specified may be, at any time within one month from the date of the warrant, and to search the premises, or the vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

- (2) A person authorised by a warrant issued under subsection (1) to search any premises or any vehicle, vessel or aircraft may:
 - (a) search any person who is found in, or who the authorised person has reasonable grounds to believe has recently left or is about to enter, those premises or that vehicle, vessel or aircraft; and
 - (b) seize any property found on that person or on the premises or in the vehicle, vessel or aircraft, which the authorised person has reasonable grounds for believing to be evidence of, or to have been used in connection with, the commission of an offence under this Act, or any documents which such authorised person has reasonable grounds to believe ought to have been produced under Section 13 of this Act.
- (3) If, by virtue of this section, a person has any power to enter any premises, vehicle, vessel, or aircraft, that person may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of exercising that power.
- (4) If there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person has committed an offence under this Act, a police officer may seize any property in that person's possession or under such person's control which appears to the police officer to be evidence of, or to have been used in connection with, the commission of the offence.

15. Notice.

- (1) In the event that any property has been seized under Section 14 of this Act, the person who executed the seizure shall, within one month after the seizure, give notice in writing of the seizure and the reasons for the seizure to the owner.
- (2) Such notice shall not be required if:
 - (a) the property was seized in the presence of the owner;
 - (b) the owner of the property cannot be identified; or
 - (c) a person is, within one month after the seizure, charged with an offence in connection with the seized property.
- (3) If any property has come into the possession of a prescribed authority under Section 14 of this Act, and a period of one month has elapsed from:
 - (a) the date of seizure; or
 - (b) the date of notice if the notice has been given under subsection (1);then the property shall, by order of the court, be forfeited to the State unless, within that period, the owner has claimed the property by giving notice in writing to the Bank.

- (4) If the Bank has received a notice of a claim under subsection (3), and a period of two months has elapsed from the date of receipt of the notice, the property shall be released to the owner unless, within that period, the Bank has either:
 - (a) by notice in writing to the owner, required the owner to institute proceedings in a competent court for the recovery of the property; or

- (b) instituted proceedings in a competent court for the forfeiture of the property.

16. Recovery of Forfeiture.

- (1) If proceedings for the recovery or forfeiture of property have been instituted in a court under Section 15 of this Act, the court may order the property to be forfeited to the State if the court finds that the property was used in connection with the commission of an offence under this Act.
- (2) If any property has come into the possession of a prescribed authority, whether in consequence of the seizure of the property under Section 14 of this Act or otherwise, the liability of the property to forfeiture shall not be affected by the fact that the owner of the property was in no way concerned with the act or omission that rendered the property liable to forfeiture.
- (3) If any property is forfeited under this section:
 - (a) the forfeiture shall be deemed to have taken effect at the time when the liability to forfeiture arose; and
 - (b) the forfeiture shall, subject to any appeal in any proceedings which resulted in the forfeiture, be final and no application or proceedings for restitution or in detinue by any person, shall lie.

17. Retention of Seized Property.

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if property has come into the possession of a prescribed authority, whether in consequence of the seizure of the property under this Act or otherwise, and the prescribed authority is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting the property to be evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act, the prescribed authority may retain the property for a period of twelve months from the date it came into its possession and, if any person is, within that period, prosecuted for an offence under this Act in which the property is or can properly be adduced in evidence, the property shall be retained until the prosecution has been completed.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), any person to whom any powers of the Bank under this Act are delegated or on whom any functions are conferred by or under this Act, including a police officer, shall be deemed to be a prescribed authority for the purposes of the definition of that expression in Section 5 of this Act.
- (3) For purposes of subsection (1), proceedings shall be deemed not to have been finally completed so long as there is pending an appeal in the matter.
